Stop Motion Animation

Using pen, paper, camera and clay, participants learn the basics of stop motion. They delight in seeing their own animations spring to life as they test their patience, planning and creativity.

Modelling clay is an ideal material for beginners and experts alike. Our program teaches how to craft clay characters for animation and how to manipulate them shot-by-shot as we create movie magic.

Animation takes a lot of teamwork. While collaborating on more complex projects participants learn to animate their characters, props and scenes as a group—creating more complex and rewarding work.
